

Cell phone use should not be permitted during flight. Flights are not a public place where I can get up and move if someone else's conversation is bothering me. On a flight, you are restricted to your seat and are not allowed to leave. Therefore, people should not be permitted to engage in activities that would be disruptive to the people around them.